

The Virgin-Sounds FUN page

Postal competition this week - the Virgin Assistants have had enough of you for a while. Tell us what you think Van Morrison has just said to Thin Lizzy's Phyl Lynott to cause the latter's amusement. "I have just sat on something particularly unpleasant" perhaps, or even "Gosh, it's true what they say about beans." The one that Van Morrison thinks is the funniest or that we think is funniest if we can't find him or he doesn't want to play, gets ten of his albums including 'Wavelength'. There'll be ten runner-up prizes of 'Wavelength' albums too.
